

Unshakable Peace

Isaiah 26:3 (NIV):

“You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.”

Peace isn't found in a perfect situation—it's found in a steadfast Savior. The kind of peace Isaiah speaks about isn't temporary or fragile. It's perfect peace—complete, unwavering, and rooted in trust.

Life may be unpredictable, but God is not. When our minds are fixed on Him—when we choose to trust Him over our worries—He meets us with peace that defies our circumstances. This peace doesn't mean the storm is gone; it means you have an anchor in the middle of it. Are you craving peace today? Fix your eyes on Jesus. Fill your thoughts with His Word. Breathe deeply and remember that your peace doesn't come from getting control—it comes from surrendering control to the One who holds it all.

Reflection Prompt:

What would it look like for you to fix your mind on Jesus today?

Prayer:

Jesus, I need Your peace. Help me to keep my thoughts focused on You. When the world feels chaotic, let me find rest in Your presence. Amen.
