May Faith Journal Prompts

Bloom in Faith

- What does it mean to "bloom in faith" in this season of your life?
- Write about a time God brought beauty out of something broken.
- How is God calling you to grow right now?
- What weeds (doubts, habits, distractions) need to be removed from your spiritual garden?
- Reflect on a recent answered prayer. How did it strengthen your faith?
- How do you stay rooted in God's Word when life gets busy?
- What does spiritual growth look like for you this month?
- Describe a moment when you chose faith over fear.
- How can you encourage someone else to bloom in their walk with Christ?
- What fruit of the Spirit is blooming most in your life right now?
- Where do you feel stagnant in your faith, and how can you invite God into that space?
- Write a prayer asking God to help you flourish in His timing.
- What does "new life" mean to you spiritually?
- Reflect on John 15:5 — how are you abiding in the Vine?
- In what area do you need to trust God's pruning process?
- How can you create more space for God to grow your faith?
- What lesson has the Lord been teaching you lately?
- Write about something that once felt dead but is now blooming again.
- How can you keep your faith strong in dry or difficult seasons?
- Describe your spiritual garden — what's thriving? What needs tending?
- What role does worship play in your growth?
- Reflect on how God's grace has nourished your faith.
- Who in Scripture inspires you to grow in faith and why?
- What has God planted in your heart that you're waiting to see bloom?
- What does it look like to live with "faith in full bloom"?
- Where do you see God working in your life right now?
- Write a gratitude list of things God has grown in you this year.
- How can you water your faith daily?
- Write a faith declaration to speak over your life this month.
- Reflect on how you've bloomed this month — what are you celebrating?
- Write a letter to your future self, reminding her how far God has brought you and encouraging her to keep blooming in faith.
