

Walking in the Light

Scripture:

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."
— Psalm 119:105 (NIV)

Devotional:

We often think wisdom is about having all the answers — but sometimes, it's simply about knowing where to place your next step.

Walking in wisdom doesn't mean walking with certainty — it means walking with light.

Light that comes from the Word. Light that shows you the next step even when you can't see the whole road.

God rarely gives us the full map. But He does give us a lamp — His Word.

And when we stay close to Him, when we lean into Scripture daily, we learn how to walk with clarity, courage, and calm.

Wisdom isn't just something you think — it's something you practice. One small, obedient step at a time.

Journal Prompt:

Where do I need God's light in my life right now?

Prayer

Lord, I don't need to see the whole road — I just need to see You. Shine Your light on my path today. Help me trust You with the next step, and the one after that.

Let Your Word guide me, shape me, and lead me forward with wisdom and peace.

In Jesus' name, Amen.
